USED RAGS AND COAL OIL.

Incendiarists Worked Boldly Under an Electric Light.

Some one poured coal oil on the floor of Mrs. Parlo's tailor shop at 303 Salina street, Thursday night and fired the building by lighting oil-soaked rags pushed under the door.

Two girls saw the rags burning and warned John Eberhardt, living next door, who extinguished the fire. The attempt to fire the place was boldly made. The work was done in Salina street and under the light of a street lamp. The fire was discovered at 8:30 p. m. The door is not more than 20 feet from the sidewalk. Fragments of burning rags showed that they had been used as a fuse to enable whoever started the blaze to easily escape before the fire should attract notice.

Folkmen sent by Capt. Schroeder from the Wyoming Street station found that the door sill, wooden steps and floor of the room had been saturated with oil. Mrs. Parlo lives at 291 South Thirtieth street and utilizes the building as a workshop.

A Man to the Rescue!

The Woman in Peril Rarely Finds Help From Her Own Sex.

It is no wise to a woman's discredit that she is not a professional life-saver. We can only fancy her in the fireman's helmet, in the crew of the life-boat, or welding a policeman's club, at the loss of some of that fineness which is the distinguishing quality of her sex. The Molly Pitchers and Grace Darling are only examples of the sublime self-sacrificingness of women in great emergencies.

It's much the same in other ways. Women turn to the strength, skill and judgment of men in the crises of life.

One of the most common statements made in the letters grateful women write to Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., is this: "I owe my life to Dr. Pierce." These women have found themselves in great danger. They have appealed without avail to local physicians. They have consulted in vain with women advisers. The best that had been done for them was just to keep them afloat in the sea of disease with strength visibly failing, in the hope that the man who had strength and skill to save them might be found.

WOMAN'S APPEAL ANSWERED.

Hundreds of thousands of women have appealed to Dr. Pierce, for relief from womanly ills and not one has appealed in vain. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription supplemented by the medical advice of Dr. Pierce has been the means of cure to this vast army of women suffering from diseases peculiar to the sex.

"I wish to tell you the benefit I received from using your remedies," writes Mrs. Alice Conrath, of 261 W. Harrison Street, Chicago, Ill. "Twenty years ago I was taken with a severe pain in the left ovary and side. Tried several different remedies, but nothing helped me. I got so bad I could scarcely walk across the floor or do work of any kind. One day an old neighbor lady came to see me, and told me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. She said she knew it would help me, as it had saved her life. When the doctors had given her up and said they could do nothing for her she said she began to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it cured her. She got a bottle of the 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and began taking them. Before I had taken one bottle of each I was so much better I could do all my own work, and that is a good deal, as I am the mother of four small children. Three bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me. I have not been sick since then. I think

Election Returns Said to Have Been Tampered With.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES FIGHT

COMMISSIONERS BEGIN INVESTIGATION OF CHARGES IN TWO WARDS.

Election of Fontana and Buckley Said to Be Shown by Altered Returns—Judges and Clerks Testify.

The Board of Election Commissioners started Friday to investigate the charge that the returns in the contest between W. G. Buechner and T. J. Buckley, for the House of Delegates from the Twenty-fourth ward, had been tampered with. The judges and clerks in two precincts, the Second and Twelfth, were summoned as witnesses. The examination into similar charges in the Twenty-second ward, where John R. Fontana and Harry W. McChesney were the opposing candidates, was set for 3 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Attorney Pephtha D. Howe appeared in behalf of Buechner, the Republican candidate, but was not admitted to the room where the investigation was in progress. Mr. Howe stated to the Post-Dispatch that William Knoke, one of the Republican judges in the Twelfth precinct, and Perry McCarthy, Democratic clerk in the same precinct, testified before the election commissioners that the tally sheet showing the returns for the House of Delegates had been changed since leaving their hands. The alteration which is charged is the changing a figure 2 to 3, making Buckley's 229 votes appear as 230.

All witnesses were carefully questioned as to the disposition made of the ballot boxes when they were brought to the office of the board, with a view to locating the responsibility for the alleged changes. Attorney Howe said at noon that the responsibility for the alleged change in the Twelfth precinct returns had been narrowed down to three men, all employees of the Election Commissioner's office.

The judges and clerks in the Twelfth precinct were: C. C. Walton, Thomas J. Levin and Perry McCarthy, Democrats; and William Knoke, John P. Wiot and Edward Roberg, Republicans. In the Second precinct the Democratic election officials were Joseph Kribs, Wm. Evans and W. W. the English; the Republicans were James Jacobs, Charles H. Ball and William S. Uley. Besides the judges and clerks, challengers of both parties from the two precincts were called upon for testimony. The session of the board was executive. In the Twenty-second ward contest, it is claimed that a figure 1 was changed to a figure 7 in the returns from the Eleventh precinct, giving Fontana a plurality.

Dora Richardson was from one of the mountain families in the vicinity of the general's home. Gen. Clay became infatuated with her simple beauty and country-bred ways and married her. The life as mistress did not suit the child-wife, who was but a wild mountain rose, not susceptible of such cultivation as Gen. Clay contemplated. She left him and returned to her people and their cabins in November, 1897.

Fifteen Shots Were Exchanged by the Veteran of 91 Years and the Deputy Sheriff, None of Which Hit the Marks Aimed At.

GEN. CASSIUS M. CLAY.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. VALLEYVIEW, Ky., April 5.—Deputy Sheriff Dick Collier, from Richmond, accompanied by two other deputies, went to the home of Gen. Cassius M. Clay this morning to serve upon him writ of delivery sent out by Mary B. Clay for furniture belonging to her now in the famous Whitehall mansion. Gen. Clay refused to let the deputies enter his house, and a battle between Clay and the deputies ensued, in which 15 shots were fired. It is not known whether anyone in the Clay mansion was hurt, as neighbors fear to enter the premises.

None of the shots fired at the deputy sheriffs took effect. Gen. Clay's troubles with the child-wife, whom he married Dec. 13, 1894, when she was but 14 years old, have been told and retold. ## THE BOER WAR MUST GO ON

Kruger Declares His Countrymen Will Not Yield.

READY FOR ARBITRATION

EVEN THE QUESTION OF THE IN-DEPENDENCE OF REPUBLICS.

Botha and De Wet, He Says, Will Fight
as Long as Life Lasts Rather Than Surrender to Savage Britons.

KRUGER ON ARBITRATION.

"We do not fight except for peace. . . .
Independence is the only treasure we desire. . . . We would sacrifice our liberty if the verdict of arbitration decided that one or other of the republics had done anything to forfeit it. But on that point we are at ease. Kruger on arbitration to end the Boer war."

PARIS, April 5.—An interview with Mr.
Kruger appears in the Matin. The former president of the Transvaal was seen in a modest little inn at Utrecht, where he is stopping for the moment. His eyes have been very much improved by recent operations and he can now dispense with spectacles.

Sitting in front of a table with a Bible under his left hand, Mr. Kruger delivered himself of a statement, to which further significance was given by the presence of the Orange Free State delegate, Herr Fischer.

Mr. Kruger began by announcing that on Saturday next he proposed retiring into the country for complete rest. The little village of Hilbersum, not far from Utrecht, has been selected for his abode. Nothing has yet been decided regarding his trip to America. Mr. Kruger will undertake the journey if his strength permits, and if there is any hope of gaining advantage for the Boer cause.

Pointing to Herr Fischer, the aged President declared that the two republics were indissolubly united.

"Herr Fischer," he said, "is fighting for the same cause as my heroic friend, President Steyn. The two presidents and the two commanding generals, Botha and De Wet, will share the same fate."

On being questioned regarding the reluctance he placed on the British official telegrams and statements in Parliament,
Mr. Kruger, half rising from his armchair, declared:

"The British government, British telegraph and the British press always try to make this war look like a war of a little finger 'look like this much'—and he extended both arms.

"I am persuaded everything is going well out there, precisely because our enemies continue to dissimulate and travesty facts."

The British Made
First Proposal.

"As regards Gen. Botha's negotiations, the public knows from the blue book and by reading Gen. Botha's last dispatch that it was the British general who first made proposals. Never did the Boer general refuse to listen. We do not fight except for peace. We are not conquerors, but although Gen. Botha listened to the English proposals, he never uttered a word of equivocation on the subject of independence. Independence is the only treasure we cherish, even if we have to

HUSBAND OLD; THE WIFE YOUNG

Now Their Domestic Life Interests the Curious.

GOO-GOO EYES.
KISSES. SCANDAL.

TESTIMONY IN THE WHITEHEAD
DIVORCE SUIT IN NEW YORK.

Mrs. Whitehead, Who Has Been Referred to as a Study in Curves, Denies All Wrong Doing Related by Many Witnesses.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, April 5.—Sitting only a few feet apart in the Supreme Court, Mr. and Mrs. Lydell Whitehead for the past three days have seen the skeleton of their married life rattled and danced, marionette fashion, before the gaze of a crowded courtroom.

Lydell Whitehead, pale and baldheaded, sits just across the counsel table from his wife, whom he is suing for divorce, naming John Frederick Thomas, correspondent, Thomas is a brother-in-law of "Farmer" Scott, the Democratic orator.

Mrs. Whitehead is tall and pretty. She is dark-eyed and quiet. She is only 35, 23 years younger than her husband, who begins to show unmistakable signs of decrepitude. Mr. Whitehead is president of a large corporation and wealthy.

Thomas, the correspondent named in Whitehead's suit against his young wife for divorce, is a stalwart, good looking, smooth-faced man and is married.

One of the most important witnesses so far was Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, Moore, sister of the correspondent. She declared she had discovered an intrigue between her brother, John Frederick Thomas, with whom she lives, and Mrs. Whitehead, who had been on terms of the utmost intimacy with her.

She was astonished because, as she said, her brother had until then seemed to her like a gentleman with ladies, and while she knew that Mrs. Whitehead was "attractive," she had never before come in contact with a wife who forgot her marriage vows. Without committing her suspicions to anybody she did some amateur detective work on her own account and obtained evidence that convinced her of her brother's guilt.

Her greatest fear then was for his safety. Not knowing what Lydell Whitehead would do when he made the same discovery. She spoke to her brother, Thomas, and later, when she went to visit Mr. Whitehead's mother, in Saratoga, she told the story to the mother, after obtaining a pledge that the matter would be kept secret.

Mr. Whitehead refused to believe the story when his mother repeated it to him. He denounced it as an infamous lie, but he investigated, and then brought suit for absolute divorce.

Thomas P. Day, in charge of the swings in Central Park, was a good witness for the plaintiff.

Mrs. Whitehead shook her head in protest while this witness described her meetings in Central Park with Mr. Thomas, who, he said, patted her face, stroked her hair, pressed her hand, squeezed her waist and kissed her within sight of the swings.

He said that she had made "goo-goo" eyes at Mr. Thomas in his sister's home, and had so conducted herself as to cause the scandal of which her husband was the last to learn.

He testified that he recognized in the courtroom two persons who had particularly attracted his notice during the past spring and early summer of 1900.

One was "this lady," he said, indicating Mrs. Whitehead, and the other was Mr. Thomas, who occupied a rear seat in the room with the correspondent near the door. The correspondent looked very uncomfortable as he stood up for purposes of identification.

Day said he had seen the couple together 15 or 20 times. They came by different roads, but always at about the same hour of the forenoon, meeting close to his stand. There was a crowd of spectators at the time they chose for their meeting.

"What did you see them do?" inquired Mr. Hummel.

"I have seen them kiss together," replied Day, wiping his mouth with his hand.

Q. You know what a kiss is? A. (Smiling.) Yes, I guess so.

Q. Did you observe anything else? A. I did not see anything very bad, but they acted like sweethearts. I noticed that they once looking down on them, when they put their arms around each other and kissed.

Q. Was that all you saw? A. Yes, nothing more (he saw). They were patting each other.

Q. How many times did you see them? A. I did not keep tally.

William A. Scott, formerly of New Orleans, but now of Elmhurst, La., was in the last campaign as a speaker for the Democratic national candidates.

When did you first notice the conduct of Mrs. Whitehead? Scott was asked.

"About ten months ago," said Scott. "What did you first notice?"

"That would be hard to say, but I think that a fair instance is that I saw her when she was in the Waldorf-Astoria and went to the Turkish room. He followed them, and as he approached them, the Turkish room he heard Mrs. Whitehead say:

"Look out, there comes the detective."

Wellington, Kas., Sept. 1900. I contracted Blood Poison two years ago this fall, and was persuaded to try a medicine widely advertised by a remedy company in Chicago. I was required to pay a large amount in advance, and can truthfully say that I was worse when I began than when I left. I was left with a yellow, reddish pimples would break out and fill with yellow matter; open sores on my face and neck, and my throat was so sore I could scarcely swallow, and my mouth and tongue were seldom free from ulcers. I was in a desperate condition, and was told that I was dying. I was told that I was dying. I was told that I was dying.

He said to Mrs. Whitehead:

"What are you trying to do with this man, Thomas?" Then Thomas, who, Scott said, had been at supper with them for two hours or more, turned and said:

"Look at her, old man; isn't she a study in curves?"

Mrs. Whitehead, who had been following the testimony of Scott with an expression half amused and half scornful, looked down suddenly and blushed.

When the defendant came to the witness stand her testimony was a general denial of all that had been said by other witnesses.

She said her relations with her husband had always been amicable until other persons had interfered. She had met Mr. Thomas by accident in Central Park last May and had sat by his side without attempt at concealment.

She declared that she had seen Mr. Thomas in the last campaign as a speaker for the Democratic national candidates.

CITY HALL POLICE COURT

Miss Pansy Marvin was so strictly the mode at a colored dance given at the Natatorium, at Nineteenth and Pine streets, that Beverly Ford and James Mayo, supported by their friends and relatives, mixed up a little game, in which, after Pansy had made heart's trumps, Messrs. Ford and Mayo soon shifted to a drawing card.

Beverly is a fat little man, and during the dance intermissions he sat down. "I'm game Pansy," "O, you little duck," said Pansy, "how well you look."

"Not with that Manhattan cocktail expression in her eye," replied Beverly. In the meanwhile the ladies, not even the beer could obviate, seized Pansy. She accepted Mr. Mayo and invited him to have a drink.

CITY NEWS.

Never before was such a crowd seen in any store as was seen yesterday on the third floor at Crawford's. Standing room was not to be found for the half of the people who desired to purchase. Their wagon-men and teams worked all last night bringing from the Main Street Warehouse duplicates of the same goods as were sold yesterday; all the damaged goods cannot be brought forward at once for lack of room; will be brought forward daily until all is sold.

GERMANS DUG A MOAT

THEIR FORTIFICATION KEEPS AWAY CHINESE COURT.

AN ISLAND FOR FOREIGNERS

Bodies of Thirty-Two United States Soldiers, Including Two Captains, Sent Home.

PEKING, April 5.—The ministers think the island of Ku Lung Su concession just agreed upon extremely valuable, as the island can be controlled absolutely as far as sanitary and other measures are concerned, and will become largely a residential quarters for foreigners. It will be entirely under international control. The ministers and other foreigners consider the fortifications of the German legation excessive and believe it to be the reason for the Chinese court not returning to Peking. A deep and wide moat has been dug on two sides of the legation premises. The barracks on the new legation grounds are well under way, including those of the American legation. The bodies of 32 United States soldiers, including the remains of Capt. R. B. Padlock of the Seventh United States Cavalry, and Capt. H. J. Riley of Battery F, Fifth United States Artillery, were shipped this morning to Takien where they will be placed on board a vessel for transportation to the United States. The bodies were placed upon the train with imposing military ceremonies.

WANT COMMERCIAL PEACE.

New York Chamber of Commerce Passed a Resolution.
NEW YORK, April 5.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, Isador Straus, acting chairman of the committee on commerce, and the revenue laws, reported a resolution regretting the differences "that have arisen in the commercial relations of the United States with the Empire of Russia," and expressing "the earnest desire that these difficulties may speedily be removed and an understanding may be arrived at that will permit the unimpeded development of commercial intercourse between the two countries." The resolution was adopted.

BY TROLLEY TO PHILADELPHIA

Electric Road From New York Is Under Way.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, April 5.—Additional details regarding the incorporation at Trenton, N. J., of the Philadelphia, Trenton & New York Railroad Co. are now known. Albert L. Johnson, the trolley magnate, has taken formal steps toward realizing his great project of building and operating an electric road between this city and Philadelphia. The terminus at this end of the line will be on Staten Island, unless he gets through his project of building a tunnel from the city hall under the East river to Brooklyn, through the latter borough and under the narrows. The Philadelphia, Trenton & New York

Your Spring Cleaning

Hasn't all been done if you have not cleansed and set things to rights in your system. There are those humors that make you break out and feel tired, that take away your appetite, too.

You'll have those dull headaches, those bilious turns, fits of indigestion, that tired feeling and that eruption, until you get rid of those unhealthy accumulations. That's certain.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cleanses the system, sets things to rights in it, makes the blood pure and rich, strengthens all the organs and functions.

That's why so many take it every Spring. "Before taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was troubled with severe headaches and that tired feeling. My whole system seemed run down. I have taken several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and can say that I never had a medicine do me so much good. I have had no occasion to use any other medicine since I began taking Hood's." Edward F. Adams, Portageville, Mo. Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure you and keeps the promise.

Railroad Co. has been capitalized at $200,000, but this is regarded as only a beginning.

The Johnson syndicate already owns the trolley line running between Princeton and Trenton and also the upper Delaware river bridge. The latter was sold with the syndicate recently got control of the New Jersey Street Railroad Co. The lines of the Trenton-Princeton road will be extended within a few weeks to the New Brunswick and from that point to the Staten Island terminal, over a right of way which has already been obtained by the Johnson syndicate.

It is the purpose of Mr. Johnson to charge a five-cent fare between this city and Philadelphia, which is a sum fraction of that charged by the steam railroads. He intends to compete with the latter not only in passenger traffic, but in the hauling of freight.

He already has in operation a vast system of trolley lines running out from Philadelphia, which connect about 60 towns in the Lehigh Valley and he occupies a will extend this system until he gets it into the heart of the coal mining district of Pennsylvania. Part of Johnson's plan to get a tunnel from Staten Island to the city has been his offer to carry passengers from Manhattan to Brooklyn or Richmond boroughs for a three-cent fare.

CASHIER JONES IS ABSENT

Manager Lewis of the Southern Hotel Says His Trusted Employee Has Gone East for Benefit of His Health.

William C. Jones, who has been cashier at the Southern Hotel, and who is well known to its patrons, is temporarily away from the city. Manager Lewis said to the Post-Dispatch Friday morning: "Mr. Jones seems to be afflicted with a bronchial trouble. He left the hotel a week ago and I understand that he has gone to his former home in Massachusetts for the benefit of his health. If he does not stay away too long his position at the hotel will be held open for him. Mr. Jones resides at 1044 South Eleventh street. He and his wife departed from that at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Hauser, at 122 Park avenue. Mrs. Hauser said: "Mr. Jones has a severe throat trouble. He left the city a week ago Thursday and went South for his health. I don't know his destination. He will probably be gone several weeks."

MORE REALTY DEALS.

Liggett & Meyers Office Building Sold—Another Tenth Street Lease.
Mr. L. E. Anderson, vice-president of the Mercantile Trust Co., has concluded the sale to Thomas Dunn of the Liggett & Meyers office, with the ground, 50x150 feet, on the south side of Washington avenue, 100 feet east of Thirteenth street. The consideration was $30,000. Mr. Dunn will enlarge the building and prepare it for mercantile use. The Mercantile Trust Co. has also closed a 20-year lease of the northwest corner of Olive and Tenth streets, fronting 20 feet on Olive street, from the Maffitt Realty Co. to the Tenth Street Realty Co., at $500 a year for the first five years and $800 a year thereafter. The leases are to erect, within 10 years, a building to cost not less than $50,000, and they have also the right to purchase, at any time within the same period, for $200,000. Plans are now being drawn for the building. The property was sold about 10 years ago by J. D. Lucas to W. W. Culver for $25,000, and about four years ago was transferred to the Maffitt Realty Co. for $175,000. The present transaction is on a basis of 4 per cent on $200,000.

PRESIDENT SCHWAB TO RETIRE.

Will Not Retain the Steel Trust Presidency an Indefinite Time.
NEW YORK, April 5.—The headquarters of the United States Steel Corporation are to be situated in this city. President G. M. Schwab has secured a suite of apartments on the second floor of the Waldorf-Astoria and proposes to make New York his temporary home. The understanding is that Mr. Schwab will not retain the presidency for an indefinite time. It is said that he needs a rest, as he shows the effects of his work in solving many difficult problems that have confronted him in the details of the organization. Just when Mr. Schwab will retire from the presidency is not predicted, but it is believed he will relinquish it within a year. President Schwab would not discuss the matter last night.
